[Text] In the name of the Sudanese people; in the name of the Sudanese land; in the name of peace, progress, and prosperity to our people; in the name of all these, I, (Robert Chua Akol), we in A-2 [Anyanya-two {em-} FBIS], are appealing to the Sudanese political parties. We in Anyanya-two are appealing to the Sudanese Government. We in Anyanya-two are appealing to the SPLA to join hands in the coming constitutional conference to bring about peace. The peace process and the constitutional conference are the key to the future of the Sudanese people. The future of the Sudanese people is the concern of all of us. The future of Sudanese prosperity is the concern of all of us {em-} the man who lives [word indistinct] in the forest, the man in the countryside, the man in the city, the man outside the Sudan. It is our aim and the immediate aim that peace progress and hte constitutional conference be realized as soon as possible. {ep}

There are enemies of peace inside the country. There are enemies of prosperity in the country. These enemies of peace, these enemies of progress, and these enemies of prosperity are
